

Skills Building – January 20-21 Tracking Workshop

With Gretchen Chapman Stephenson

A 2-Day Tracking Workshop – Advancing Your Tracking Skills

This two day seminar will offer a variety of skill building exercises to you and your dog's tracking. We will focus on those more challenging tracks and how to train for them. We will be meeting and tracking outside. Please dress for the weather, we will not have heated shelter. There will be a portable toilet but there is no water at the site. Bring a harness, tracking line, water, lots of treats and chair, etc. Lunch and snacks provided.

An introduction to Tracking is Required for Working Spot in Workshop

Limited to 12 Working Dogs and Handlers

Unlimited Audits

Tracking Skills to be covered include:

Instructor

Gretchen Chapman Stephenson

In 1995, Gretchen got her first “grown up” dog – a Weimaraner – who introduced Gretchen to the world of scent through tracking and hunting. In 2003, Gretchen graduated with a Master Trainer Certificate from the Tom Rose School specializing in tracking. She is an AKC TD, TDU, TDX and VST Judge as well as a CPDT-KA, CGC evaluator and Therapy Dog evaluator.

Gretchen has achieved multiple tracking titles on her dogs including an AKC Champion Tracker title and has worked with over 50 breeds of dogs since 2003 when she began teaching tracking. Gretchen loves watching dogs track and helping tracking teams reach their full potential.
